

Albert Chen
(985)-421-9999
your.email@example.com
554 My Boulevard, Baltimore, MA 12345

Profile

To begin my elementary school teaching career at a well-respected institute that allows me to work with highly skilled mentors. To use my skills and education to foster curiosity and a love of learning in young minds.

Key Knowledge Areas

- Creative lesson planning
- Curriculum development
- Early childhood development and learning
- Enhancing learning opportunities of young students with disabilities
- Learner assessment of special needs students

Education

Early Childhood and Early Childhood Special Education, Bachelor of Science

University of Maryland College of Education College Park, MD, September 2015 – July 2019, 3.5 GPA

Courses Completed:

- Child Development, Learning, and Intervention
- Developmental and Classroom-Based Assessment
- Culturally Responsive Pedagogy

Professional Experience

Student Teacher, Lincoln Elementary, College Park, MD

May 2019

- Worked with mentor teacher to teach kindergarten students
- Developed and played educational games with young students
- Assessed students for special education eligibility under supervision of mentor teacher

Student Teacher, Kennedy Elementary School, Baltimore, MD

April-May 2018

- Worked one-on-one with special needs students in third grade under supervision by mentor teacher
- Developed and executed individual learning plans for special needs students with assistance from mentor teacher

Credentials

Maryland Professional Eligibility Certificate, Maryland State Department of Education, 2019