

Gloria Alvarez
(985) 421-9999
your.email@example.com
554 Santo Domingo Street, Houston, TX 12345

Profile

Recent graduate ready to bring educational expertise and passion for working with children to the early childhood teaching environment. Experience with helping children meet learning goals, including those related to special education, and communicating with parents to develop a solid working relationship.

Key Knowledge Areas

- Creative lesson planning
- Early childhood development and learning
- Enhancing learning opportunities of special education students
- Parent communication for promoting early student success

Education

Early Childhood and Early Childhood Special Education, Bachelor of Science

Baylor University Waco TX, September 2015 – July 2019, 3.6 GPA

Courses Completed:

- Child Development and Learning
- Developmental and Classroom-Based Assessment
- Curriculum Organization

Professional Experience

Student Teacher, Alamo Elementary, San Antonio, TX

April 2019

- Assisted mentor teacher in 1st grade classroom
- Created and played educational games with young students
- Assessed students for special education eligibility under supervision of school counselor

Student Teacher, Kennedy Elementary School, Baltimore, MD

April-May 2018

- Partnered with individual special needs students in 3rd grade under supervision of mentor teacher
- Created original teaching techniques for special needs students with assistance from mentor teacher

Credentials

Texas Professional Eligibility Certificate, Texas State Department of Education, 2019