

Talia Keil
(123) 456-7890
youremail@email.com
123 Red Street, Jersey City, NJ 12345

Profile

Recent Fine Arts graduate with concentration in photography. Passionate photographer with experience capturing portrait and commercial subjects in unique and creative ways. Strong organizational skills and high level of experience editing and creating digital images. Accepted to juried exhibition at The Bailey Center.

Key Skills

- Adobe Photoshop and Lightroom
- Experience with digital and film photography
- High level of creativity
- Organizational skills
- Studio experience

Education

Bachelor of Fine Arts in Photography

New Jersey City University, Jersey City, September 2016 - June 2020

Professional Experience

Photography Internship, Power Studios, Jersey City, NJ

September 2019 - June 2020

- Assisted in setting up lighting and background for commercial food and clothing photography shoots
- Communicated positions and poses to models, to provide them with direction
- Assisted photographer with digital editing and touching up photos to meet client specifications
- Undertook maintenance on wide variety of equipment, including cameras, flashes and lights

Volunteer Photography Assistant, Masters Games, New York City, NY

July 2017 - August 2017

- Managed equipment for professional sport photographers, ensuring they received lenses and cameras when needed
- Maintained schedule of events showing when photographers could access arenas for different photo opportunities
- Used judgement and eye for shots to help photographers access best location to take photographs
- Communicated with photographers, athletes, the public and games organizers to ensure photographers could work without interruption