

Antonio Hernandez
(531) 974-2086
a.hernandez@email.com
8771 Jack Boulevard, Santa Ana, CA 87765

Profile

Reliable and dedicated worker with more than six years experience in the construction industry. Experience working as part of a large team to ensure commercial projects, including malls, bridges and highways, are completed on time and under budget. Completed OSHA certification to ensure safe working conditions for crew.

Professional Experience

Construction Worker, Pentagon Projects, Santa Ana, CA

September 2015 - Present

- Erect and repair buildings, roads and bridges as part of a large crew
- Safely demolish existing structures and dispose of materials
- Build and disassemble scaffolds and barricades
- Communicate with project managers and clients to develop project time lines
- Train and mentor new workers in workplace policies, including safety procedures

Construction Laborer, Hexadic Construction, Burbank, CA

July 2013 - August 2015

- Performed concrete work on commercial and industrial job sites, including cutting and grouting
- Maintained and repaired equipment and tools, including hand tools and power tools
- Loaded, transported and distributed building machinery, tools and materials to different job sites
- Kept work areas of up to 40,000 square feet clean and safe

Education

Associate in Science Degree - Construction Management

Fullerton College, Fullerton, CA, September 2011 - June 2013

Key Skills

- Detail-oriented
- Commercial construction experience
- Strong communication and customer service skills
- Hand and power tools expertise
- Construction site safety knowledge

Certifications

- OSHA Certified - 10 Hour Certificate, 2019