

Scott McBath
923-782-8725
youremail@example.com
21 Deerpath Court, Liberty, Missouri 64068

Profile

Talented and responsible licensed Journeyman electrician with 7 years of progressive experience in repair, installation, and maintenance in both residential applications and complex industrial settings. Skills include designing and deploying innovative solutions, analysis and problem solving.

Professional Experience

Economy Electrical, Birmingham, MO

February 2017 — Present

- Assess costs and scope of electrical wiring and systems installations and repairs for commercial and residential clients
- Obtain precision measurements and system readings using electrician's tools
- Read and follow blueprints, diagrams, electrical, and mechanical schematics
- Completed projects in keeping with National Electric Code and all safety codes and regulations
- Mentored apprentice electricians

Krasinski's and Son, Electric Services

January 2013 — February 2017

- Installed electrical wiring for residential clients
- Used volt and ohm meters, IC testers and dial indicators to obtain precise measurements and systems readings
- Interpreted electronic schematics and blueprints
- Prepared and cleaned work sites and maintained parts inventory
- Reported potential hazards to supervisor

Education

Associate in Applied Science Electrical

METROPOLITAN COMMUNITY COLLEGE Kansas City, MO, September 2010 – June 2012

Key Skills

- Plan and complete electrical installations for dwellings and commercial projects
- Read and interpret blueprints and schematics
- Troubleshooting malfunctions and blackouts
- Inspection and replacement of old wiring and insulated cables
- Knowledge of safety procedures and regulations
- Critical thinking and problem solving
- Leadership
- Flexibility

Certifications

- Electrical Supervisor Certificate, 2018
- Missouri Journeyman Electrical Contractor's License 2019