

Patricia Lawless

Skilled, forward-thinking painter and photographer with over six years of related work experience and a strong portfolio of exhibitions and academic achievement.

590 Penny Lane,
Duluth, GA 30096
lawlesspm@wildblue.net
(211)700-0000

Professional Experience

Freelance Artist

Self-Employed, Duluth, GA October 2018 – Present

- Design and develop paintings for clients according to specifications
- Produce stylized photos for two client websites
- Collaborate with two local art galleries to develop and fit art installations throughout their buildings

Adult and Kid Paint & Craft Instructor

KidzArt, Duluth, GA March 2018 – March 2020

- Led classes with energy and clarity
- Executed high-quality acrylic and oil paintings in various painting styles and mediums
- Encouraged creativity and a fun, mistake-free atmosphere

CG Painter

Tippett Studio, Berkeley, CA September 2013 – January 2018

- Created and applied textures as directed by the Art Director or paint lead
- Created and maintained texture maps and command files
- Participated on teams determining design solutions

Education

Bachelor of Fine Arts – Painting with Minor in Photography

Savannah College of Art and Design,
Savannah, GA
September 2010 - May 2013

Key Skills

- Watercolor, Oils, Acrylics, Gouache
- Scenic art creation
- Photography
- Working knowledge of Adobe Photoshop, Sketch, and Illustrator
- Familiarity with VFX pipelines, Linux, RenderMan, and Katana
- Attention to detail
- Time management and multi-tasking
- Strong verbal and written communication skills

Exhibitions

- Solo Acrylic Painting Exhibition: Bold and Defiant, High Museum of Art, Atlanta, GA, 2019
- Solo Watercolor Painting Exhibition: Girl in Field, Hudgens Center for the Arts, Duluth, GA, April 2018
- Two-Person Photo Exhibition: Floral Jubilation, 2 Smith Art Gallery, Duluth, GA, September 2020