

Alicia Rodgers
(123)-456-7890
aliciarodgers@example.com
321 Ithaca Street, Kansas City, KS 64111

Professional Profile

Certified Flight Paramedic with 10+ years of experience in emergency medicine. Holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Health, Sports, and Exercise Science and maintains a tenure of at least three years at each place of employment. As Flight Paramedic, consistently earn a patient/patient family satisfaction survey exceeding 4 out of 5.

Professional Experience

Flight Paramedic, LifeSave, Kansas City, KS

February 2014 – Present

- Provide basic and advanced life support for patients during in-air transport following a crisis or as part of a hospital transfer.
- Work on a team responsible for cardiac and burn critical care transfers.
- Earned title “Paramedic of the Month” three times as a result of nominations from team members and patients.
- Manage patients in very small cabin space and adjust for altitude as much as possible.

Ground Paramedic, LifeSave, Kansas City, KS

January 2011 – January 2014

- Performed advanced life support on pre-hospital patients en route to medical institutions.
- Addressed emotional as well as medical needs of victims/patients.
- Communicated patient conditions effectively to hospital physicians and nurses.
- Trained four new team members on report writing.

Emergency Medical Technician-Basic, St. Luke’s Hospital, Olathe, KS

January 2008 – December 2011

- Administered necessary life support procedures at scenes and on-the-way to the hospital.
- Stocked and maintained the emergency vehicles for supplies and medication regularly.
- Completed all necessary reports and paperwork before the end of every shift.
- Volunteered as part of a staff medical team for special events, such as March Madness, Planet Comicon, and the Kansas City Film Fest.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Health, Sports, and Exercise Science

The UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS, Lawrence, KS May 2007

Emergency Medical Technician Program Graduate

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI- EXTENSION, Kansas City, KS. December 2007

Paramedic Program Graduate

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI- EXTENSION, Kansas City, KS. December 2011

Key Skills

- Strong Interpersonal Skills
- In-Air Medical Care
- Pharmaceutical Interventions
- Interpretation of Lab Data

Certifications

- Certified Critical Care Paramedic (CCP-C®), January 2012
- Certified Flight Paramedic (FP-C®), January 2012