

Oscar Vargas
(123)-456-7890
oscarvargas@example.com
123 Python Street, Birmingham, AL 35200

Professional Profile

Advanced Emergency Medical Technician with nearly three years experience and specialized training in pediatric urgent care. Strong reputation for compassionately rendering emergency care and transport and effectively reassuring nervous parents.

Key Skills/Knowledge Areas

- Pharmaceutical Interventions
- Managing Stressful Situations
- Active Listening
- Diplomatic
- Flexible

Education

Basic Emergency Medical Technician Training Course

UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA EMS ACADEMY, Birmingham, AL, May 2013

- Intermediate/Advanced EMT Transition Training (32 hours), May 2017

Certifications

- EMT-Advanced Certification from the National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians (Active), June 2019
- Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS), December 2019

Professional Experience

EMT-Advanced, Cook's Children's Hospital-Emergency, Birmingham, AL

February 2019 – Present

- Deliver pre-hospital care to roughly 85 pediatric patients per month.
- Educate patient families regarding transport and treatment of loved ones.
- Provide skilled medical care to revive and stabilize patients.
- Assess all call scenes for safety before administering care.

Emergency Medical Technician-B, Presbyterian Hospital-Emergency, Birmingham AL

January 2018 – February 2019

- Rendered quality medical care to severely sick or injured patients from home 9-1-1 calls.
- Quickly and correctly assessed accident injuries and developed a treatment plan.
- Safely transported patients to or between appropriate medical institutions.
- Anticipated and prepared for potential problems with patients during transport.