

Anna Hernandez
(123) 456-7890
a.hernandez@email.com
823 Fifth Street, Redondo Beach, CA 90123

Profile

Award-winning interior designer with 10+ years of experience in creating vibrant and unique interiors for residential clients. Active listener and able to communicate with clients to determine their needs while conveying the necessary specifics to contractors. Stays up to date on the latest styles and trends with financial creativity needed to keep within budgets.

Professional Experience

Interior Designer, Stevens Design, Manhattan Beach, CA

November 2014 - Present

- Works closely with clients to effectively utilize their spaces, making recommendations and taking their desires into account
- Manages multiple residential projects while meeting deadlines and staying within budget
- Negotiates better deals with suppliers, saving an average of $1,000 on building materials per project
- Completes sketches, drawings and construction plans using AutoCAD
- Awarded the 2018 California Home+Design Award in the category of Bath Design

Interior Designer, Luxe Home Interiors, Hollywood, CA

May 2010 - November 2014

- Provided excellent customer service from beginning to end of projects
- Designed over 100 modular kitchens for residential clients
- Communicated with architects and contractors for successful completion of projects

Interior Design Assistant, Redesigns by Marshall, Redondo Beach, CA

January 2009 - May 2010

- Created client pitch presentations including AutoCAD drawings and renderings used by associates to book projects
- Assisted design team as needed

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Interior Design

University of Southern California, Los Angeles, CA, September 2006 - May 2010

Key Skills

- Design solutions
- AutoCAD and MS Office
- Creative eye with attention to detail