

Lilith K. Rosenbaum
(414) 012-3456
jbrosen4@email.com
3395 NE Jasmine Trail, Milwaukee, WI 53203

Profile

Passionate, self-motivated Interior Designer eager to create beautiful, functional spaces with innovative fusions of color, lighting and texture. Adept at using the latest ID software and proficient in green design concepts. Versatile and skilled in acquiring key information from clients to identify and meet or exceed needs and expectations.

Key Skills

- Attentive to detail and cost management
- Organized and skilled at multitasking
- Strong familiarity with Revit, AGI and Bluebeam
- Advanced knowledge of Adobe Photoshop, SketchUp and Microsoft Office
- Customer-oriented

Education

Bachelor of Fine Arts in Interior Architecture and Design

Milwaukee Institute of Art & Design, Milwaukee, WI, September 2016 - December 2020

Coursework completed:

- Residential Design
- Work Space/Office Design
- Drafting, SketchUp & AutoCAD
- Revit
- IAD Systems I: Elements of Design
- IAD Theory/Practice: Human Factors
- Sustainable Materials & Green Design

Professional Experience

Interior Design Intern, Jerrica Zaric Interior Design, Milwaukee, WI

May 2020 – August 2020

- Conducted feasibility studies for each project to assess its viability
- Performed site measures and took photos to assist with project planning
- Specified lighting, furniture, fixtures, millwork and flooring for projects
- Drafted and adjusted floor plans, elevations and 3D renderings
- Developed and showed design presentations for clients
- Maintained client files and sample library