

Rachel Racket

Financial executive with 12 years of experience, including more than six as a CFO for an enterprise-level company. Use deep understanding of financial data to expediently make long- and short-term budgeting decisions. Strong at written and verbal communication, allowing for accurate messaging to other executives, employees and stakeholders.

Professional Experience

Chief Financial Officer

FFF Solutions, Baltimore, MD December 2014 - Present

- Manage financial interactions between clients, vendors and FFF Solutions' 400+ employees
- Identify cost-saving measures, to date reducing operating expenses by 18%
- Oversee the financing of complicated large-scale projects, including a $40 million equipment purchase

Senior Accounting Manager

General Industries, Columbia, MD December 2009 - November 2014

- Managed accounts receivable and inventory purchases to maintain good relations with government clients
- Oversaw and developed several mid-level managers
- Used Sage50 Cloud software to model budgeting options and make recommendations to the organization's CFO

Accounting Officer

SSS Software, Owings Mills, MD July 2006 - November 2009

- Analyzed and reported on project budgets on behalf of project managers
- Modeled company performance in anticipation of changes to market conditions
- Researched and proposed tax changes to preemptively identify expedient tax-saving strategies, leading to a 5% reduction in 2007's corporate tax burden

111 First Avenue, Baltimore,
MD 22222
r.racket@email.com
(999) 999-9999

Education

Bachelor of Science in Finances
Maryland University, Annapolis, MD
September 2000 - June 2004

Master of Accounting
Business School Of Greater Maryland,
Columbia, MD
September 2004 - June 2006

Key Skills

- Budget analysis
- Financial projections
- Project oversight

Certifications

- Certified Public Accountant, CPA Association, 2010