

Professional Experience

Production Welding Apprentice

Marathon Manufacturing, Bismarck, ND | August 2021 – Present

- Work with various materials such as steels, plastics, aluminum, and copper.
- Attend seminars or other training sessions to stay current.
- Assist welders in cleaning up work sites and setting up welding equipment.
- Improve proficiency using cutting torch, mig, stick, plasma cutter, brakes, shears, bench saw, bench grinder.
- Examine welded surfaces and structures for flaws.

Education

High School Diploma - Manufacturing and Production Endorsement

NORTH BISMARCK HIGH SCHOOL Bismarck, ND
September 2016 - June 2020

Associate of Welding Technology

FARGO COMMUNITY COLLEGE Fargo, ND
August 2020 - August 2021

Relevant Coursework

- Basic Maintenance of Mobile Equipment
- Advanced Welding
- Introduction to Welding
- Principles of Manufacturing
- Algebra I, Geometry
- Practicum in Welding

CERTIFICATIONS

- National Association of Human Resources Certified Trainer

Emmanuel Perez

923 Orange Ave,
Bismarck, NE 58505
emmanuelperez@example.com
(123) 456-7890

Experienced welding apprentice who is a Certified Welder and proficient in all major forms of welding. Holds a college degree in Welding Technology and graduated number one in the major out of over 45 students. Bilingual in English and Spanish, and eager to learn from skilled welders and other production employees.

Key Skills

- Trainable
- Bilingual: English and Spanish
- Hand tools
- Physically Fit
- Tech savvy