

Susan Gilbert

9017 Bluejay Ln, Gary, IN 50696
susan_gilbert@mail.com
(840) 839-0392

Highly skilled construction superintendent with a private sector background. Construction management skills backed by degrees in project management and construction technology as well as multiple certifications. Experienced with software solutions that are commonly used to assist with construction projects, including Procore, BuilderTREND, and STACK Estimating.

Education

MBA in Project Management

University Of Illinois Chicago, IL
September 2000 – June 2002

Bachelor's Degree in Construction Technology

Southern Illinois University
Carbondale, IL
September 1996 – June 2000

Key Skills

- Project management
- Scheduling
- Compliance
- Procore
- BuilderTREND
- STACK Estimating
- JobNimbus

Certifications

- Project Management Professional, Project Management Institute, 2016
- Certified Construction Manager, Construction Management Association of America, 2013

Professional Experience

Project Supervisor

Industrial Steel, Gary, IN | March 2013 – Present

- Review blueprints and other job specs pre-construction
- Create and manage project schedules
- Observe job sites and provide direction to construction workers
- Ensure compliance with OSHA as well as local and state safety regulations

Construction Manager

Maya Construction Group, Chicago, IL | February 2003 – December 2012

- Oversaw the construction of up to 75 homes at a time
- Performed daily work inspections and instructed personnel as needed
- Led weekly meetings with foremen and communicated information to management
- Over 90% of projects completed under budget