

John Roscoe, Ph.D.

123 Your Street,
Dallas, TX
youremail@example.com
(123) 456-7890

An IT Consultant specializing in the development of scalable IT infrastructure for enterprise companies. Expertise in cloud technology, Microsoft Azure, and data-driven decision making. A proven track record of partnering with diverse technology teams to execute large scale IT initiatives. Adept at defining IT strategy and leading complex data migration projects.

Key Skills

- IT Infrastructure
- Technical Project Management
- Microsoft Azure
- Cloud Technology
- Database Migration
- Cross-functional Collaboration

Professional Experience

IT Infrastructure Consultant

Southwest Technology Inc., Dallas, TX | May 2021 – Present

- Provide IT consulting services to a technology company providing professional services to enterprise clients, which include analyzing IT infrastructure and proposing recommendations for the migration from legacy systems to cloud technology
- Serve as the SME for a database migration project to the cloud, which is projected to save the organization $200K in infrastructure costs YOY
- Perform root cause analysis to troubleshoot critical issues and identify solutions to maintain 99.9% uptime

Academic Experience

Research Dissertation

Dallas University, Dallas TX | May 2019 – May 2021

- Wrote a 100-page dissertation on the impact, benefits, and risk of cloud computing with regard to cybersecurity, which included analyzing industry data and developing a series of data models and simulations

Education

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.), Information Technology

Dallas University, Dallas, TX September 2014 - May 2021

Bachelor of Science (B.S.), Information Technology

Dallas University, Dallas, TX September 2010 - September 2014

Certifications

- Certified Associate of Project Management (CAPM), 2020