

Akira Sato

123 Your Street,
San Francisco, CA 12345
akira@example.com
(123) 456-7890

A senior business owner with 10+ years of experience specializing in entrepreneurship, venture capital investors, new business development, and talent acquisition. A proven track record of building and developing multi-million-dollar businesses within the technology industry. A strong history of defining business strategies and driving innovation to disrupt stagnate markets.

Key Skills

- New Business Development
- Entrepreneurship
- Strategy Development
- Investor Relations
- Cross-functional Leadership

Professional Experience

Business Owner

Bay Area Software Partners Inc., San Francisco, CA | September 2011 – Present

- Build, manage, and develop a startup technology company delivering innovative SaaS solutions to enterprise businesses, which includes securing over $1.5M from angel investors and providing presentations on the product and overarching business model
- Secure new business with multinational enterprise customers and attend meetings with C-level executives, resulting in over $15M in gross annual revenue for 2020
- Identify opportunities to improve gross margins by 10% through selecting ideal vendors and negotiating optimal pricing
- Manage, hire, and build a team of marketing professionals, software developers, and sales executives to develop and deploy SaaS solutions for client accounts
- Create financial presentations on business performance for annual shareholder meetings and define overarching business strategy
- Define marketing strategy to secure new business and drive brand awareness

Education

Master of Business Administration (M.A.)

University of San Francisco, San Francisco, CA May 2011 - May 2013

Bachelor of Business Administration (B.B.A.)

University of San Francisco, San Francisco, CA September 2007 - May 2011