

Professional Experience

Special Education Teacher

Chester Charter, Chester, PA | September 2018 – Present

- Provide small group and individual instruction to students ranging from third grade to eighth grade, develop individualized education plans (IEPs), and monitor student progress
- Implement, plan, and deliver research-based interventions for students with autism spectrum disorders, dyslexia, and behavioral disorders
- Coordinate with psychologists, parents, and multidisciplinary teams to ensure safe learning environments and identify appropriate resources for students
- Deliver training and mentorship to 10+ student teachers completing internships to drive professional development and enhance teaching capabilities

Special Education Teacher

North Philadelphia Elementary, Philadelphia, PA | September 2016 – September 2018

- Develop individualized service plans (ISPs) for children with cognitive, learning, and emotional disorders and fostered a positive and empathetic learning environment
- Collaborate with classroom teachers and academic teams to develop and enhance the curriculum to improve education outcomes for students

Education

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) Special Education

Temple University, Philadelphia, PA | September 2012 - May 2016

Certifications

- Special Education Certification (K-8), State of Pennsylvania, 2016

Joshua
Gordon

123 Your Street,
Philadelphia, PA 12345
joshgordon@example.com
(123) 456-7890

A Special Education Teacher with five years of experience specializing in autism, behavioral analysis, child psychology, and elementary education. A proven track record of coordinating with multidisciplinary education teams to develop and refine curriculum for special education students. Adept at delivering instruction in individual and small group settings.

Key Skills

- Autism Spectrum Disorders
- Early Childhood Education
- Curriculum Development
- Behavioral Disorders
- Individualized Service Plans (ISPs)