

Alfred Chang

123 Your Street, Pittsburgh, PA
alfredchang@example.com
(123) 456-7890

A Veterinary Technician with entry-level experience specializing in veterinary medicine, vaccine administration, empathetic care, and communication. A proven track record of providing quality care for large and small-sized breeds. Adept at collaborating with medical teams to identify appropriate treatments for patients based on symptoms.

Education

Bachelor of Science (B.S.)
Veterinary Technology
University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA
September 2017 - May 2021

Key Skills

- Veterinary Medicine
- Animal Welfare
- Patient Management
- Surgical Monitoring
- Communication

Certifications

- Licensed Veterinary Technician, State of Pennsylvania, 2021

Professional Experience

Veterinary Technician
Pittsburgh Animal Hospital, Pittsburgh, PA | May 2021 – Present

- Gather patient medical history, create documentation, monitor symptoms, administer anesthesia, and support the development of treatment plans
- Insert catheters and IVs, monitor patient vitals, and administer medication based on direction from the veterinary doctor
- Perform dental cleanings, phlebotomy, and radiographs for patients
- Conduct pre and post-surgical monitoring of patients and evaluate reaction to treatment plans, anesthesia, and medication

Volunteerism Experience

Volunteer
Pittsburgh Animal Shelter, Pittsburgh, PA | May 2019 – May 2021

- Provided volunteer services to a local animal shelter with over 40 dogs and cats, which included monitoring and transporting animals, providing grooming services, and communicating with visitors to answer questions on animal history prior to adoption
- Created documentation for the shelter on neutering status and surgery schedules