

Professional Experience

Veterinary Technician

Animal Hospital of North Chicago, Chicago, IL | May 2018 – Present

- Provide support to veterinary teams for the delivery of high-quality patient care, identify opportunities to improve hospital operations and patient flow, resulting in a 15% increase in operational efficiency for a 24/7 emergency animal hospital with 50+ patients
- Educate clients on patient treatments, medical conditions, and healthcare risks and provide emotional and medical support
- Assist veterinarians during surgical procedures, including neutering, wound care, anesthesia administration, and post-surgical monitoring

Veterinary Technician

Center City Animal Hospital, Chicago, IL | May 2016 – May 2018

- Administered vaccines and medications to patients in accordance with veterinarian treatment plans and created documentation on reactions and symptoms
- Gathered urine, stool, and specimens, performed laboratory testing on samples, and delivered findings to the veterinarian to support treatment identification
- Maintained medical and laboratory equipment, sanitized and organized operating rooms, and ensured compliance with OSHA safety regulations

Education

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) Veterinary Technology

University of Chicago, Chicago, IL | September 2012 - May 2016

Certifications

- Licensed Veterinary Technician, State of Illinois, 2016

Lori Johnson

123 Your Street,
Chicago, IL 12345
lorijohnson@example.com
(123) 456-7890

A veterinary technician with five years of professional experience specializing in animal welfare, patient care, treatment planning, and medical triage. A strong history of managing and optimizing hospital operations to enhance patient outcomes and treatment. Adept at communicating with owners and providing support during critical medical situations.

Key Skills

- Veterinary Care
- Process Improvement
- Surgical Support
- Patient Triage
- Treatment Plans