

Ana Baker

123 Your Street, New York, NY 12345
anabaker@example.com
(123) 456-7890

A Certified Nursing Assistant with entry-level experience specializing in activities of daily living (ADLs), patient relations, hospital operations, and communication. A strong background in providing patient care with empathy and professionalism. Adept at building relationships and collaborating with diverse clinical teams.

Education

High School Diploma

Brooklyn West High School,
New York, NY
September 2016 - June 2020

Key Skills

- Nursing Care
- Patient Relations
- Communication
- Activities of Daily Living (ADLs)
- Relationship Building

Certifications

- Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA),
American Red Cross, 2021

Professional Experience

Certified Nursing Assistant Program

American Red Cross, New York, NY | October 2021 – December 2021

- Provided quality care to patients in coordination with the licensed nurse, which included monitoring vital signs, administering medication, and maintaining catheters
- Delivered nursing support to aid residents with activities of daily living (ADLs), including bathing, eating, phone calls, and personal hygiene
- Maintained a safe and clean working environment in alignment with hospital guidelines
- Transported patients to and from hospital appointments and surgeries

Personal Care Aid

Brooklyn Assisted Living, New York, NY | January 2020 – October 2021

- Delivered support to residents for daily activities, including transport, dressing, meals, bathing, and cleaning
- Coordinated with registered nurses to ensure patient compliance with medication dosage and schedule
- Provided updates to nursing supervisor on patient condition and personal needs and created documentation on symptoms