

Alex Santos

123 Your Street, San Diego, CA 12345 alexsantos@example.com (123) 456-7890

A certified High School Teacher with entry-level experience specializing in curriculum development, student engagement, communication, and classroom management. Adept at building positive relationships with students to drive personal and academic growth.

Education

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) Secondary Education

University of San Diego,
San Diego, CA
September 2016 - December 2020

Key Skills

- Classroom Management
- Curriculum Development
- Science
- Microsoft Office Suite
- Student Assessments

Certifications

- Single Subject Teaching Credential, Science: Chemistry, State of California, 2021

Professional Experience

High School Teacher

San Diego High, San Diego, CA | August 2021 – Present

- Deliver instruction to classes of up to 30+ high school students in science courses, including chemistry, biology, and environmental science
- Coordinate with department faculty to develop and refine curriculum and tailor lesson plans to student needs, resulting in a 15% increase in test scores for science
- Communicate with parents, teachers, and students during conferences to discuss academic performance, behavior, and learning strategies
- Provide tutoring services to students struggling with course material and deliver support for SAT prep workshops

Student Teaching Internship

Santa Cruz High School, Santa Cruz, CA | September 2020 – December 2020

- Taught Chemistry I and Environmental Science courses to high school students in collaboration with a certified high school teacher
- Identified student learning needs and provided academic support to aid them in overcoming challenges and improving grade point average