

Professional Experience

High School Teacher

Amherst High School, Boston, MA | September 2018 – Present

- Teach high school math to classes of 25 to 35 students, including Algebra I, Algebra II, and Calculus
- Tailor curriculum and lesson plans based on student needs and incorporate differentiated instruction to enhance academic performance, resulting in a 25% increase in GPAs
- Conduct student assessments, perform behavioral analysis and utilize cooperative learning techniques to drive student success and personal growth
- Coordinate with faculty and administration to implement E-learning for students during COVID-19, including delivering training sessions for teachers, parents, and students

High School Teacher

Boston High School, Boston, MA | September 2016 – September 2018

- Provided instruction to 20 to 25 high school students for math courses, coordinated with the math department to evaluate curriculum, and created lesson plans
- Attend meetings with students and parents to discuss academic progress, goals, and develop strategies to facilitate academic growth

Education

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) Secondary Education

Boston University, Boston, MA | September 2012 - May 2016

Certifications

- Single Subject Teaching Credential, Math, State of Massachusetts, 2016

Sarah Collins

123 Your Street,
Boston, MA 12345
sarahcollins@example.com
(123) 456-7890

A High School Teacher with five years of experience specializing in differentiated instruction, cooperative learning, student assessments, and education technology. A proven track record of coordinating with interdisciplinary teams to enhance curriculum design and drive student success.

Key Skills

- Differentiated Instruction
- Curriculum Design
- Lesson Planning
- Education Technology
- Behavioral Analysis