

Jonathan Rollins

A Quality Control Specialist with five years of experience within the food science industry, specializing in quality audits, food safety, and R&D. A proven track record of leading process improvement initiatives to refine production procedures and increase product quality.

123 Your Street,
Atlanta, GA 12345
jonathanrollins@example.com
(123) 456-7890

Professional Experience

Quality Control Specialist

Learning Solutions Inc., Atlanta, GA August 2016 – Present

- Coordinate with the product management and development team to create quality control procedures for education products generating over $3.5M in annual revenue
- Collaborate with customer success team to evaluate quality metrics, review customer response, perform quality audits and root cause analysis, and establish new QA protocols to prevent recurrence, resulting in a 15% increase in customer satisfaction
- Perform inspections on products to ensure consistency with quality standards, including packaging, labeling, and product functionality

Quality Control Specialist

Lenero Technology, Atlanta, GA May 2011 – August 2016

- Supported the development of standardized quality control processes across three manufacturing sites for the production of laptops and desktop computers
- Analyzed production issues and quality defects and coordinated with manufacturing teams to identify corrective actions and long-term solutions

Education

Bachelor of Science (B.S.)
Quality Control
University of Atlanta, Atlanta, GA
September 2007 - May 2011

Key Skills

- Quality Control
- Continuous Improvement
- Product Development
- Quality Assurance
- Manufacturing