

SARAH ODOM

A certified X-Ray Technician with five years of experience within the medical field, specializing in radiology, patient triage, imaging equipment, and process improvement. A proven track record of coordinating with medical teams to enhance clinical operations and drive positive outcomes for patients.

123 Your Street,
Atlanta, GA 12345
sarahodom@example.com
(123) 456-7890

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

X-RAY TECHNICIAN

Atlanta Hospital, Atlanta, GA
May 2018 – Present

- Manage preparations for radiological procedures in a high-volume hospital with over 450-beds, including MRIs, EKGs, CTs, mammograms, and fluoroscopy
- Build relationships with patients, ensure proper positioning during procedures, adjust immobilization devices, and conduct interviews to gather medical history
- Ensure compliance with infection prevention protocols during Covid-19 and utilize radiation protection techniques to ensure safe exposure levels for patients

X-RAY TECHNICIAN

Greenland Medical Center,
Atlanta, GA
May 2016 – May 2018

- Administered X-ray examinations, injections, and radiology procedures for a 300-bed hospital, conducted physical patient exams, and created medical reports for physicians
- Maintain PPE and radiology equipment, ensure compliance with OSHA safety regulations, and perform appropriate safety procedures to minimize patient radiation exposure

EDUCATION

Associate of Science (A.S.)
Radiologic Technology
University of Atlanta, Atlanta, GA
September 2014 - May 2016

High School Diploma
Eastern High School, Cincinnati, OH
September 2010 - June 2014

KEY SKILLS

- Radiology
- Clinical Workflows
- Fluoroscopy
- OSHA Safety
- Patient Relations

CERTIFICATIONS

- American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) Certification, 2016
- Basic Life Support (BLS) Certification, American Heart Association, 2016