

Raymond Ortiz

123 Bedford Avenue,
Syracuse, NY 12345
youremail@example.com
(123) 456-7890

Film Studies Educator with three years of experience. Develop and deliver a rigorous curriculum while sparking students' interest in complex film topics and concepts.

Professional Experience

Adjunct Professor – Film Studies

University of Syracuse, Syracuse, NY | August 2019 to Present

- Deliver lectures about films by prominent 20th Century directors, including Alfred Hitchcock and Francis Ford Coppola
- Engage classes of up to 30 in discussions of film topics such as mise-en-scène, postmodernism, use of music, and contemporary critical analysis
- Broaden students' understanding of the evolution of 20th Century American and international film, challenging preconceived notions of significant works
- Refer students to additional research resources as appropriate
- Maintain frequent open-office hours to help students address schedule challenges and focus their research efforts

Education

Master of Arts (MA) – Film Theory

Columbia University, New York, NY

Bachelor of Arts (BA) – Film Studies

Temple University, Philadelphia, PA