

Cameron Malfara

Top Secret Security Clearance
123 Windermere Rd., Seattle, WA 12345
youremail@example.com
(123) 456-7890

Strategic and dedicated FBI Agent with 7+ years of advancement and experience. Equally effective in a leadership or hands-on role, with recent success developing new training resources for agents. Adapt readily to new work challenges and conditions.

Education

University of Washington,
Seattle, WA

- Master's Degree – Organizational Management
- Bachelor's Degree – Criminal Justice

Key Skills

- Complex Problem-Solving
- Counterintelligence
- Counterterrorism
- Criminal Investigations
- Cross-Agency Collaboration
- Federal Law Enforcement
- Fraud Prevention
- Interview & Interrogation Methods
- New Agent Training
- Procedure Improvement
- Reporting & Documentation
- Staff Coaching & Mentoring
- Task Prioritization
- Violent Crime Prevention

Professional Experience

Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)
Seattle, WA | June 2015 to Present

Special Agent in Charge

FBI-Seattle (August 2018 to Present)

50+ hours per week | Salary: $XX | Supervisor: Mina Sayed, (123) 456-7890

- Coordinate investigations of alleged or suspected criminal activity violating federal law
- Introduced new training and development programs for regional personnel. Programs offered more in-depth education on counterterrorism issues and interrogation methods, helping drive an 11% gain in staff retention and 15% gain in new hire performance (per formal leadership assessment as of May 2022)

Supervisory Special Agent

Olympia Resident Agency (June 2015 to July 2018)

40+ hours per week | Salary: $XX | Supervisor: Sarah Johnson, (123) 456-7890

- Member of management group that updated core goals for task forces focused on public corruption and violent crime prevention
- Honed team's standard procedures for documenting new cases, raising efficiency by 25% within first month of implementation

Prior Experience

- Advanced from Community Police Officer to Patrol Sergeant for the Seattle Police Department.