

Professional Experience

Biomedical Engineer

ArkTech Med Device Solutions, New York, NY | October 2016 – Present

- Deliver on-site consulting and technical guidance to physicians, nurses, and healthcare personnel and identify solutions to technical issues for biomedical devices
- Provide comprehensive training to 100+ healthcare personnel across five hospital accounts on equipment usage to maximize product efficiency
- Serve as the point of contact for clients and lead a team of five biomedical engineers to execute large scale implementation projects for new medical equipment

Biomedical Engineer

BioMed Solutions Inc., New York, NY | May 2014 – October 2016

- Performed equipment diagnostics, installations, and maintenance projects for client hospitals and interfaced with medical teams to provide equipment training
- Field technical issues, concerns, and complaints from physicians and identify ideal solutions to support clinical workflows and ensure customer satisfaction

Education

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) Biomedical Engineering

University of Syracuse, New York, NY | September 2010 - May 2014

Certifications

- Clinical Engineer Certification (CCE), 2014

Kevin Morrison

123 Bedford Avenue,
New York, NY, 12345
kevinmorrison@example.com
(123) 456-7890

A Biomedical Engineer with eight years of experience, specializing in technical support, preventative maintenance, and equipment safety. A strong history of providing on-site consulting and training to healthcare personnel to ensure optimal usage of medical equipment.

Key Skills

- Biomedical Engineering
- Equipment Maintenance
- Healthcare Consulting
- Technical Support
- Team Leadership