

SARAH JOHNSON

123 Franklin Pike, Nashville, TN 12345 sarahjohnson@example.com (123) 456-7890 LinkedIn | Portfolio

A compassionate and patient-centered Nurse Practitioner with eight years of clinical experience treating adults and pediatric patients. A strong history of delivering empathetic care and providing emotional support to patients throughout treatment.

EDUCATION

MASTER OF SCIENCE (B.S.) NURSING

University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN
September 2013 – June 2015

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (B.S.) NURSING

University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN
September 2009 – June 2013

KEY SKILLS

- Patient-Centered Care
- Evidence-Based Treatment Plans
- Relationship Building
- Patient Education
- Clinical Operations

CERTIFICATIONS

- Pediatric Nurse Practitioner Certificate, American Nurses Association, 2016
- Family Nurse Practitioner Certification, American Academy of Nurse Practitioners, 2015

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

NURSE PRACTITIONER

Johnson & Taylor Medical Offices,
Nashville, TN
July 2017 – Present

- Perform assessments for pediatric patients ranging from newborns to patients 21 years of age and manage chronic illnesses, acute conditions, and injuries
- Deliver empathetic and compassionate care to 22+ patients per day, build rapport and long-term relationships, and achieve patient satisfaction ratings of 91%-94%
- Prescribe medication based on symptoms, age, and medical history, administer vaccinations, and provide education to patients and families

NURSE PRACTITIONER

St. John's Hospital, Seattle, WA
June 2015 – July 2017

- Interfaced with diverse patients of varying ages to treat acute health conditions and injuries and provide education on treatment plans
- Collaborated with doctors and nurses to diagnose patients, determine appropriate treatments, and ensure positive patient outcomes