

AMAR SINGH

A Registered Nurse with seven years of experience providing high-quality, compassionate care to diverse patient populations. A proven track record of collaborating with multidisciplinary teams to enhance clinical workflows and drive positive patient outcomes.

(123) 456-7890
amarsingh@example.com
LinkedIn | Portfolio
123 Bedford Avenue,
New York, NY 12345

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

REGISTERED NURSE

St. Andrew's Hospital, New York, NY
October 2019 – Present

- Achieve patient satisfaction ratings of over 93% YOY, communicate empathetically with diverse patients, and drive the delivery of patient-centered care
- Coordinate events to provide long-term patients with entertainment options and activities to raise morale of patients suffering from debilitating illnesses
- Collaborate with local nonprofits on fundraisers to expand the hospital children's library and incorporate tablet computers and game consoles

REGISTERED NURSE

Brooklyn Medical Center,
New York, NY
May 2016 – October 2019

- Delivered high-quality care to a diverse range of patients at a trauma center with over 300 beds and a 1:5 patient ratio
- Coordinated with multidisciplinary teams to improve care delivery, resulting in a 15% increase in patient satisfaction
- Served as the voice of the Trauma Center on committees such as the JCAHO Readiness Taskforce and the Readmission Reduction Planning Committee

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science (B.S.)
Nursing
Columbia University, New York, NY
September 2012 - May 2016

KEY SKILLS

- Patient-Centered Care
- Clinical Operations
- Pediatric Care
- Electronic Health Records (EHR)
- Telemetry

CERTIFICATIONS

- Registered Nurse, State of New York, License #123456, 2016
- Basic Life Support Certification, American Heart Association 2016