

JACK MOORE

Patient and caring registered nurse with two years of experience and a Traditional Nursing degree from Jacksonville University. Impeccable care standards and a proven ability to develop and execute efficient and highly-effective nursing care plans. Capable of handling a range of medical issues, including emergencies, care for the elderly, and pediatric cases. Possesses a strong work ethic and dedication to providing first-rate nursing care to all patients. Excellent computer skills and administrative capabilities.

8 Short Lane, Jacksonville,
Florida, 32256
jack.moore@youremail.com
(283) 183-4726

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

General Registered Nurse

Memorial Hospital, Jacksonville, FL
January 2020 - February 2020

- Provided pre and post-operative care to a range of patients, including elderly and pediatric patients
- Monitored vital signs of patients in the emergency department and post-operative wards
- Regularly performed blood tests in the phlebotomy department
- Installed IVs and central lines

Pediatric Nurse

Memorial Hospital, Jacksonville, FL
January 2019 - January 2020

- Prepared chart notes and developed care plans
- Provided immunizations for newborn babies and young children
- Performed assessments of newborns
- Installed IVs and performed regular blood tests

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Traditional Nursing
Jacksonville University, Jacksonville, FL
September 2016 - December 2018

KEY SKILLS

- Pediatric care
- Care for the elderly
- Maternity nursing
- Proven problem-solving capabilities
- IV management
- Phlebotomy
- Calm and friendly manner
- Excellent time management

CERTIFICATIONS

- Pediatric Nursing Certification Board Certified Pediatric Nurse
- Advanced HIV/AIDS Certified Registered Nurse